PRESIDENT'S NOTE TO BERLIN

German Government to Decide Whether Break Shall Come

GRAVE CRISIS NEAR

Seriousness of Situation Which United States Now Faces is Fully Appreciated.

Washington, April 20—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, today asked Secretary of State Lansing whether the President's ultimatum to Germany demands immediate cessation of all submarine warfare against vessels of commerce, of merely abandonment of "present methods" of warfare.

The German government is said to be prepared to discuss abandonment of method, but it has served notice that it never will abandon all submarine warfare.

The ambassador obtained the Secretary's views on such limitations as would bring German warfare in conformation to this country's ideas of international law and humanity.

Washington, April 20—Instant approval of America's position on submarine warfare as indicated in President Wilson's note to Berlin was expressed in both Paris and London today.

Speculation on Germany's possible course is guarded in both capitals, but belief prevails that Berlin cannot yield her strongest weapon and that a breach will follow.

Such a breach, London believes, would not mean hostilities, but would furnish the German government an opportunity to so regulate submarine warfare as to give no further offense to the United States, without appearing to yield.

German newspapers are guarded in their comments on the situation, awaiting the official publication of the President's demands, but showing very strong anti-American feetling

The American note reached Ambassador Gerard in Berlin at 11 o'clock this morning for transmission to Foreign Secretary von Jagow.

Washington, April 20. — President Wilson has issued his ultimatum to the German Government demanding that submarine warfare against merchantmen shall cease if Germany wishes to maintain friendly relations with the United States.

No more solemn proceeding has ever been witnessed in the historic hall of the House of Reresentatives than the President's announcement yesterday afternoon that he had taken this step. No more dramatic circumstance has ever been participated in by either body of national lawmakers.

There was no sudden outburst of shouting and tumult when the President appeared or when the last words of his communication fell from his lips. A sense of profound gravity seemed to fill the chamber and a realization that this country was on the threshold of a history-making move, There was applause, but it issued from no exhilaration, no feeling of buoyancy.

As the President announced the position he has taken and the course he has pursued within the last 24 hours, Congress realized that this Government has cast the die, that the President has laid down a proposition to the German Government which, if rejected, will almst certainly plunge the United States into the world war. It is no wonder, therefore, that all enthusiasm vanished, and that even patriotic fervor manifested itself in only subdued forms.

It is useless to minimize the grave possibilities that are ahead of the American people. The President in his note to Germany, briefly outlined in his message to Congress, declares unqualifiedly that German experience has shown that submarine warfare cannot be carried on within the law when directed at merchant ships.

This note does not impeach the good faith of Germany in trying to regulate undersea fighting, or assail the sincerity of the pledges Germany has given this country. On the contrary it says that a submarine warfare cannot be carried on without violating such pledges; therefore, if the laws of nations and of humanity are respected the campaign will have to end.

And, in demanding that Germany use her submarines against warships only the United States calls upon that country to abandon a campaign which the German Government professes to believe is her only effective weapon in combating the British starvation blockade.

Whether or not Germany will make so sweeping a surrender of course remains to be seen. If she does not diplomatic intercourse between the two countries will suddenly stop, and when that intercourse is broken off friendly relations will necessarily cease.

The hope is expressed on every hand here that the German Government, when it comes to weight the demands which have been made, and to balance the loss of American friendship and possibily that of other neutrals against the doubtful gains from submarine attacks upon non-combatant merchantmen, will yield. At best, however, this is but hope. No assurance has come from any source to sustain it.

In any event the next move must come from Germany. The resonsibility for the future relationship between this country and that rests upon Berlin. The President has taken his stand and it is irrevocable. If it had not been the situation would not have been laid before Congress. The answer of the German Government, therefore, will be anxiously awaited from end to end of the country.

It is significant that the President made no recommendation whatever to Congress. He asked that body to take no action, not even to support the position he had taken. Moreover, he stated plainly that he had sent his ultimatum to Germany, not that he would send it. In other words, he went to Congress to communicate action already taken, not to ask advice upon action that was contemplated.

Such a note at has been forwarded to Germany, of course, is not tantamount to war. Even if the demands are rejected and diplomatic relations are broken, it does not necessarily follow that war wil be declared by either government. Both sides may simply stand off and await developments.

Moreover, Germany may decide to suffer a break between that country and this, rather than abandon its undersea campaign, but may at the same time issue such orders to her submarine commanders as will give the United States no cause for further complaint. In other words, the Berlin Government, for domestic reasons, may prefer a loss of American friendship to the condemnation of her own public opinion. This is a view held by many of those who fear that Germany will publicily proclaim no abandonment of the undersea warfare.

At best, however, the situation is grave. Yet there seems nothing more to be done from Washington until the final reply of Germany is received. If the American demand now merely asked for further assurances as to attacks upon unarmed and unresisting merchant ships, the outlook would be more promising. But the demand is for the abandonment of attacks against all merchantmen, and therefore raises a far broader question than has heretofore arisen between the two governments.

Governor Stuart refused yesterday to interfere with the sentence of death, which will be carried out against Joe Lee, colored the Caroline murderer. Attorney C. M. Chichester, of Fredericksburg, apeared before the Governor at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon with a plea for commutation of the sentence to life imprisonment. The negro is sentenced to die in the electric chair tomorrow morning.

GERMANS SHIFT ATTACK AT VERDUN

French Assert Three Assaults Were Repulsed at Les Eparges

BERLIN MAKES CLAIMS

Teutons Enter Enemy Trenches, But Are Immediately Expelled With Heavy Losses

Paris, April 20—Russian troops landed at the French port of Marseilles today to join the allied troops in operations against the Germans on the continent.

his sensational announcement was made simultaneously with publication of an army order of the day issued by General Joffre, sending best wishes to the first detachment of soldiers of the Czar to fight on French soil since the beginning of the war.

The Germans near Haudremont, northeast of Verdun, in a bayonet attack in which heavy casualties were inflicted on the French, have captured a stone quarry, around which they gained a footing on Monday.

There has been considerable artillery activity west of the Meuse on hill No. 304, and the French first lines between Dead Man's Hill and Cumieres. At Les Eparges, after three attacks, they entered the French trenches on a front of about 200 yards but were immediately expelled from them, suffering serious losses.

Artillery duels are still in progress on the Russian front, but there has been no important change in positions. A Russian attack against Austrian positions on the upper Sereth River in Galicia was repulsed.

The Italians have captured Monte Fume Pass from the Austrians, and taken the extreme western peak of Monte Ancora, where the Austrian trenches were shattered, with heavy casualties to their occupants.

Still another defeat of the Turks in the region of Erzerum is recorded by the Russians. Near Aschkala, the Russians in a night attack captured strongly organized hills, and inflicted severe casualties on the Turks, who left hundreds of dead on the field of battle.

Premier Asquith has postponed until next Tuesday a statement of the British government's position with regard to conscription. The Premier has told the House of Commons that unless the disagreement among the members of the Cabinet can be amicably settled, there will be a break-up of the coalition ministry.

The reply of Great Britain and France to the American government's protest against their interference with maritime commerce has been cabled to Washington.

Greece has formally protested against the use by the entente powers of Suvla Bay, Island of Crete, for a naval base.

Paris, April 20—With artillery providing all the activity on the Verdun fronts, the Germans in the Woevre district directed three attacks against positions at Les Eparges, all of which were repulsed, though in the last one a temporary footing was gained in a first-line trench. A French counter attack ejected the enemy with serious losses, according to the official communication issued by the French War Office last night.

ASSESSMENT OF GRAYSON

State Tax Board Protests Against Further Reduction in County

ACTS UNDER NEW LAW

Executive Assistant Notifies Local Board of Review State Will Not Assent.

Richmond ,April 20—Acting for the first time under the new law which greatly enlarges the authority of the State Tax Board, Christopher B. Garnett, executive assistant of this body, notified the Local Board of Review of Grayson County yesterday that if the commissioners of the revenue in that county undertook to comply with the local board's order directing a 50 per cent reduction in real estate assessments, the State Tax Board will be asked to give him authority to institute proceedings in the Circuit Court of Grayson County for a correction of the assessment.

The development is of particular significance, since it is the State Tax Board's first official step in the direction of bringing about an equalization of assessment throughout the State

Grayson County has for years served as a classical example of the so-called "pauper" counties of the State, which draw from the treasury more money than they pay in. The 1915 report of the Auditor of Public Accounts shows that Grayson County, in the fiscal year ending September 30, 1915, paid to the state a total of $17,510.64, while the State disbursed on its account a total of $49,200.69. The loss to the State was $31,690.05.

In ordering a 50 per cent reduction of the real estate assessment, the Grayson County Board of Review justified the act by the assertion that this property has been assessed in Grayson out of proportion to similar property in other counties, and the reduction was necessary to bring the assessment into proportion. The local Board of Review notified Auditor Moore and the latter referred the matter to Mr. Garnett.

Mr. Garnett promptly dispatched the following letter to J. G. Davis, chairman of the Local Board of Review of Grayson County.:

"The Auditor of Public Accounts has referred to me a copy of an order entered by the Local Board of Review of Grayson County on April 15, 1916, from which I take the following quotation:

"'Upon investigation by this board and it being made to appear that the real estate in Grayson County is assessed out of proportion to similar real estate in other counties of this State, and that the same should be lowered in order to bring it into proportion to similar real estate in the other counties, it is therefore ordered by this board that the three commissioners of revenue for Grayson County, in making out their land books for their respective districts, reduce the assessment on each tract of land, and on each town lot and on each building in their respective districts, 50 per cent, except such tracts, lots and buildings as have been specifically corrected and reported to said commissioners of the revenue on blank forms furnished this board by the Auditor of Public Accounts of Virginia, which specific items shall be assessed as reported on said blanks'.

"This is such an unprecedented action on the part of your board that it appears to me such action was taken without due deliberation.

"In the first place, if it should be taken as a precedent by other local boards of review, there will immediately commence a competitive cutting down of the assessments, which will result in disaster both to the State and the localities affected.

"In the second place, it is founded upon an unethical basis. Because another community does not observe the law is no reason for your community to break the same. The same principle applied to personal behavior would make us all lawbreakers in a very short time, and there would be no such thing as law and order.

"I want to call your attention to a quotation from chapter 215, acts 1916, which amends the law in regard to the State Tax Board. Such quotation, so far as pertinent here, reads as follows:

"'The State Tax Board may apply to the Circuit Court of a county for the correction of any erroneous assessment of license taxes, or the errroneous assessment of lands or other property, either as to over or under valuation, in the same manner as is provided by law for the correction of erroneous assessment of property by any person who is aggrieved thereby.'

"'This law becomes effective June 17, 1916, and if the commissioner of the revenue act in accordance with the order above quoted I shall request the State Tax Board for authority to make the motion in the Circuit Court of Grayson County for the correction of these assessments.

"I therefore urge upon you to rescind the action taken by your board on April 15th, so as to relieve the necessity for an appeal therefrom by the State Tax Board."

KILLED NIGHT WATCHMAN.

Then Henry Blakeslee, Village Marshal, Tries Suicide.

Medina, Ohio, April 19.—Henry Blakeslee, village marshal, was found hiding in a haymow in the barn of a neighbor yesterday afternoon, following an 8-hour search by officers, after the killing here yesterday morning of Night Watchman John Gates, 60 years old.

Blakeslee, who had attempted suicide, admitted having slain Gates, saying the latter threatened him.

Blakeslee had shot himself in the side and is dangerously wounded. He is now under guard in the hospital.

ISSUE WITH GERMANY.

Von Bernstorff and Lansing Will Confer Today.

Washington, Aril 20.—Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambasador, sent to Berlin last night a long dispatch interpreting the situation in Washington and making certain recommendations. He is understood to have advised his government that he believed the United States meant just what it said in its submarine note and that something would have to be done quickly if friendly relations were to continue.

The Ambasador himself, having read the address of the President and the note, said:

"I can make no comment either upon the address or upon the communication which has been sent to my government."

However, he was authoritatively described as having advised the Berlin foreign office in the message sent last night that he believed at least some such declaration as that made regarding the conduct of submarine warfare in the Mediterranean Sea should be issued immediately to cover all submarine operations.

The Mediterranean declaration was handed to Secretary Lansing by the Ambassador on January 7 of this year. It contained assurances much broader in their scope than those given to cover the activities of submarines in the war zone around the British Isles, where German has contended from the first that she was engaged in a campaign of retaliation for the British blockade.

The assurances were to the effect that ony a cruiser warfare would be conducted against enemy merchant shipping, and tha noncombatant ships of every character, freight, as well as passenger carrying, would be accorded proper warning and safety for their passengers and crews. The assurances which have been given for the war zone around the British Isles covered only "liners."

The declaration of January 7, also promised that German submarine commanders who failed to obey the assurances given would be punished and that reparation would be made for death or injury to American citizens.

It is expected that Count von Bernstorff will confer with Secretary Lansing today.

General Scott Sent to Mexican Border For Complete Report

MAY VISIT PERSHING

Chief of Staff to Act as "Eyes" For Secretary Baker, But Not to Supplant Funston.

Washington, D. C. April 20—No decision as to withdrawal of American troops from Mexico is expected for a week or 10 days unless there are new outbreaks against the forces in Mexico to compel immediate action. This was made clear when Secretary Baker despatched Major General Hugh L. Scott, Chief of Staff to the border as his personal representative to make a complete report on the military problems confronting Gen. Funston.

The Administration's final action on Gen. Carranza's suggestion that the expedition be recalled probably will be based largely on what is shown in this report. Gen. Scott, who left Washington last night, hardly will be able to make the round trip and complete his observations in less than 10 days.

Secretary Baker described Gen. Scott's mission as being to assemble complete information as to the border situation for the use of the department. He also will establish a personal touch with that situation for the Secretary, of which Secretary Baker has felt the need in advising the Administration as to the military aspects of the Mexican question.

General Scott himself explained that he would be "the eyes of the Secretary," on the border. Accompanied by his aide, Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. L. Michie, of the General Staff, he will reach Gen. Funston's headquarters at San Antonio, Tex., Friday evening.

Secretary Baker laid stress in his announcement on the fact that Gen. Funston still is in supreme command of the border situation and expeditionary forces, and will remain so. He said the department fully approved every step Gen. Funston had taken, and that Gen. Scott was going only because it had seemed desirable to get a clearer view than was possible by means of official reports.

In the meantime State Department officials will take up consideration of what reply they shall make to the Carranza note urging the withdrawal of the American forces. Some questions involved in that note can be worked out before the military situation finally is reported. It is understood this work will be started tomorrow, the German situation having occupied the attention of officials, virtually to the exclusion of other matters, for some days.

Gen. Scott's orders permit him to go where he thinks best along the border or into Mexico with the troops to obtain the close and accurate knowledge of the situation wanted by Secretary Baker. He said, before leaving that he had no present intention of going beyond the border. He will make daily reports from the border.

SUBSTITUTE FOR GASOLINE

Would Put Standard Oil Company Out of Business

New York, April 19—Since Louis Enricht, the Farmingdale, L. I., inventor, announced that he had found a chemical which would convert water into a substitute for gasoline at a twentieth of what gasoline costs, he has been besieged by a constantly augmenting procession of chemists, motor experts, promoters, manufacturers, and others who are anxious to know all about the new motive power which will "put the Standard Oil Company out of business."

"There will be no more demonstrations for the present," all callers were told today.

"There are two men from Washington conferring with my business representative yesterday—and if there is any way to induce the government to buy my invention and then give it to the world, he will see that it is done."

"I have been advised to give no more demonstrations of my chemical until a demonstration can be arranged in Washington."

A representative of Henry Ford wanted to take Mr. Enricht back to Detroit with him Sunday, but the inventor decided that if Mr. Ford wanted to buy the invention and then give it to the world he would have to go to Farmingdale to talk it over.

SUFFRAGE RESOLUTION

Representative Carlin Makes Promises to Suffragists.

An attempt to get the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage to abandon its purpose of demanding that the Democratic party, as the majority party in the next election, go before the women voters for re-election on its record on suffrage was made yesterday by Representative Carlin, of Virginia, member of the House Judiciary Committee, at the conclusion of a hearing granted the Congressional Union and D. A. R. members. Representative Carlin said that he would guarantee the forcing of a vote on the suffrage resolution at this session, if the Congressional Union would send him a written promise to refrain from their threatened attack upon the Democratic party.

It is understood that the women will not even give the suggestion consideration. The women are a little doubtful of success in the event of a vote at the present time.

"Tried Others—Back to Tuxedo!" Say These Railroad Firemen

Keeping the steam up in a fast locomotive is a man's job—and that's why the brawny railroad firemen of the South must have a man's tobacco to keep their own steam up.

They smoke Tuxedo because it's the only tobacco that thoroughly satisfies and refreshes them—and they can smoke it all day and enjoy it every minute.

Note how enthusiastic these men are about Tuxedo—especially those who have tried other brands. They always come back to Tuxedo.

Tuxedo is made of the mild, sweet top and center leaves of the Burley tobacco plant—no strong, oily bottom leaves such as are used in most pipe tobaccos.

And the great original "Tuxedo Process," which absolutely removes all the bite, makes Tuxedo the mildest, most enjoyable of smokes.

That "Tuxedo Process" has 'em all guessing. No other tobacco can use it—but plenty try to imitate it.

And as a lot of these railroad firemen have discovered for themselves, not one of the imitations begins to equal the original.

P. S. CROWLEY
Fireman on the P. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"Smoking and working with my job, is just the same as smoking in a heavy wind all the time. It takes a mighty good tobacco to give me the satisfaction I get out of my pipe of TUXEDO."
P. S. CROWLEY.

C. H. ARMIGER
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"I know four or five firemen who like myself are smoking TUXEDO again after trying other tobaccos. It's the sweetest and mellowest smoke money can buy." C. H. ARMIGER.

J. M. FITZE
Fireman on the P. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"I used to have an idea that I needed a heavy tobacco for my kind of work, but I find TUXEDO sticks right by me and braces me up better than any other tobacco and is mild and sweet besides."
J. M. FITZE.

H. J. ELLERMANN
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"All along the line I see railroad men smoking TUXEDO and since I went back to it after trying about a dozen other brands, I see why. 'TUX' is a wonderful tobacco in every way." H. J. ELLERMANN.

J. R. DIERKER
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Chestertown, Md.
"I can't pay attention to my engine and bother with lighting a pipe every few minutes. TUXEDO burns sure and steady and gives me just the tasty, refreshing smoke I'm looking for."
J. R. DIERKER.

C. L. MILES
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"I borrowed a pipeful of TUXEDO a few weeks ago and it surely took me back to old times when I used to smoke it regularly. So I bought a tin and now smoke nothing else. I had forgotten what a delicious flavor it has and what a lot of lively hustle there is in it."
C. L. MILES.

J. G. NORRIS
Fireman on the P. R. R., Balto., Md.
"A man with a job as hard as a fireman's can't get any comfort out of a tobacco he's afraid to smoke all the time. I smoke TUXEDO from morning till night and it never bites my tongue or hurts me in any way. The more I smoke the more I enjoy it." J. G. NORRIS.

E. DILL
Fireman on the P. R. R., Washington, D. C.
"Every time I hear a man kicking about his tobacco I tell him he ought to do as I do—smoke TUXEDO and be happy. Nothing equals it for tasty flavor." E. DILL.

G. A. NORRIS
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"It's remarkable how a tobacco so sweet, cool and smooth as TUXEDO can have so much punch and go to it. No other tobacco does me so much good as 'TUX.'" G. A. NORRIS.

GEORGE W. ROOP
Fireman on the Southern R. R., Alexandria, Va.
"Tuxedo satisfies me and steadies me for the day's run, and suits my taste better than any other tobacco. I recommend it to all my friends."
GEORGE W. ROOP.

F. O. LARRIMER
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"My job is about the thirstiest kind of work a man can do and a tobacco that dries and parches the throat is something fierce. TUXEDO doesn't—and that's why I smoke it."
F. O. LARRIMER.

W. F. CANNON
Fireman on the R. F. & P. Ry., Alexandria, Va.
"Nothing suits my taste like TUXEDO. I notice a lot of railroad men who used to spit it are going back to it again. They can't find anything as good as 'TUX.'"
W. F. CANNON.

CHAS. J. KIMMARLE
Fireman on the P. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"All kinds of weather look alike to me when TUXEDO goes along with me. It's the one best tobacco for a man with real work to do."
CHAS. J. KIMMARLE.

J. B. JOHNSON
Fireman on the P. R. R., Perryville, Md.
"TUXEDO gives me contentment and satisfaction while feeding coal to that hungry engine and comfort and rest when my work is done. I like it better than any tobacco I have ever smoked."
J. B. JOHNSON.

A. B. McGEACHIE
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"When I first began to smoke I smoked TUXEDO but afterwards shifted to other brands. I went back to TUXEDO lately and was surprised to find what a sweet, smooth, delicious smoke it is." A. B. McGEACHIE.

J. D. BEACH
Fireman on the R. F. & P. Ry., Alexandria, Va.
"There's something about the delicious flavor of TUXEDO I can't find in any other tobacco, and I've tried them all."
J. D. BEACH.

W. J. KEOGH
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"Firing an engine keeps a man on the hustle and I notice TUXEDO rests and refreshes me more than any other tobacco I ever smoked." W. J. KEOGH.

W. J. COCHRAN
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"Everywhere I go I see TUXEDO nowadays, and especially among railroad men. I smoke it regularly and get more comfort and pleasure out of it than any other smoke ever gave me."
W. J. COCHRAN.

J. E. MURPHY
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"Some kinds of tobacco may be alright to smoke now and then, but for the all-day smoke on a hard job like mine nothing hits the spot like TUXEDO."
J. E. MURPHY.

C. E. HOOVER
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, Md.
"I don't care how much money a man has he can't get any more pleasure and comfort out of his tobacco than I get out of my tin of TUXEDO."
C. E. HOOVER.

L. F. SULLIVAN
Fireman on the B. & O. R. R., Gaither, Md.
"Shoveling coal into an engine is a job that takes the fuck out of a man but TUXEDO is the tobacco that gives the power to his elbows." L. F. SULLIVAN.

SUSTAINING THE PRESIDENT

Most of the influential papers of the country democratic and republican are sustaining President Wilson in his stand against Germany's ruthless submarine warfare, which country is paying no regard whatever to the rights of neutrals. As might have been expected, his course does not meet the approval of Theodore Roosevelt nor William Jennings Bryan, and instead of upholding the chief executive in a course he has been forced to adopt or surrender national honor, they are out in print today with criticisms. Mr. Bryan is on his way to Washington to endeavor to prevent war between the United States and Germany.

We doubt whether hostilities will follow the stand taken by Mr. Wilson to preserve the national honor of the United States. We prefer to believe Germany is loth to sever relations with this country, but there is a wild element in the Fatherland which has to be appeased, and in order to allow this class time in which to cool, Germany may, for a brief period, assume the bragadocio, but eventually she will acknowledge the justness of the claims set forth yesterday by the President.

Republican Leader Mann sees a political campaign dodge in the action of Mr. Wilson. He is the leader of the republican minority in Congress, and nothing more could have been expected from him, but when Senator Vardaman says he does not believe Mr. Wilson has any right to make such a demand upon Germany, his utterance is to be deplored.

As is suggested by a cotemporary never before has Mr. Wilson shown to such advantage as he did yesterday when he laid before the two houses of Congress the reasons which compel him to believe that the time has come for delivering an ultimatum to Germany. Every inch a great statesman and a patriot he seemed, even to those who love him not and who have heretofore criticized him most sharply. There was a moral majesty about the calmness, strength and patriotic inspiration with which the President presented the cause of the United States yesterday that put him in the ranks of greatness. A great occasion was met by a man who proved himself worthy to be its prophet and its spokesman, and we can imagine that the spirits of our immortals, of Washington, of Andrew Jackson, of Lincoln, felt well pleased with the rare dignity and power with which he delivered a message to this country and the world scarcely less important than the memorable utterances in which we proclaimed the rights of humanity and the wrongs which had driven us to their assertion.

ANGER OF THE PATIENT MAN.

(Baltimore Sun)

"Beware the anger of the patient man."

If we were the German Kaiser's most intimate friend, those are the words we would whisper in his ear at this moment.

President Wilson has shown an almost superhuman patience in the face of Germany's repeated assaults on the lives of American citizens. He has waited and waited and waited, while Germany violated again and again her pledged word. He has made every possible effort to maintain peace, even though it brought abuse and scorn on his own head.

There are only two types of men who could follow the course he has adopted. The first is the weak, opinionless, invertebrate fellow who in no circumstances can make a decision. The second is the man of exceptional strength and determination.

If Germany has suspected the President of the United States to be of the former class, she will quickly be made to realize her mistake.

FRANCE RESPLENDENT

(Richmond Times-Dispatch)

Every day since the great war began has furnished another illustration of French heroism—of that dashing courage, dauntless determination and willing sacrifice that crown this warrior nation with new glory. If England has been the treasury, France has been the brains and the heart and the strong arm of the allied cause. At Verdun France has surpassed herself. She has triumphed not only over the German legions, but over the German guns. She has smashed the German tradition of an infallible staff and an invincible army Before the war it was the custom to think of France as artificial, superficial, decadent; now the world bows its head in homage before a France reborn, glorified and resplendent.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Fire yesterday destroyed the Gambrill Manufacturing Company's mills on River road near Ellicott City, Md. Nearly 50,000 bushels of wheat and other grain was burned. Loss estimated at $250,000.

John W. Thomas, master appointed to take testimony in the suit of Harry K. Thaw against his wife, Evelyn Thaw, yesterday in Pittsburgh, recommended to the court that Thaw be grante da divorce. The decree was ordered by the court.

Formal protest against the organization on American territory of a new revolution against the Carranza government of Mexico was lodged with Secretary of State Lansing yesterday afternoon by Eliseo Arredondo Mexican Ambassador-designate to the United States.

The German foreign Office transmitted yesterday to the American Embassy a supplementary note in regard to the Sussex, containing affidavits sworn to by a Swiss passenger on the Sussex that the steamship was not torpedoed, and also a statement to the same effect from an American passenger.

Col. Roosevelt gave out a statement yesterday saying that if German now does as President Wilson demands, it will prove that Germany would have given in when he wrote the strict accountability note if he had taken the proper position at that time, thus preventing the Lusitania disaster, and removing the present causes of friction, And if Germany does not do as as the President demands, the Colonel said, the strict accountability note is unpardonable.

Dr. Michael H. Scanlen, State medical examiner, has forced the real inquiry into the New Haven wreck at Bradford on Monday night out of the hands of the local coroners. His charge that the railroad equipment and not the employes is to blame for the five deaths has spurred the Interstate Commerce Commission to call a general inquiry to open in Providence, probably today. The Rhode Island State Public Utilities Commission will co-operate with the government officials.

The Swiss government has directed its commercial department to charter a number of neutral steamers, especially American, exclusively for Swiss importations from the United States and Argentina. The names of the steamers and the sailing schedule will be communicated to belligerents to prevent erroneous attacks. Switzerland is virtually dependent upon America for her food supplies, which have been greatly restricted by the recent use of such large numbers of merchant vessels for war purposes.

Lieutenant Fikentscher, of the German raider Emden, which was destroyed by the Austrian cruiser Sydney at Cocos Island in 1914, has made his escpae from Malta, whither he had been taken as a prisoner by the British. The lieutenant is now a prisoner at Syracuse, Sicily. "I will commit suicide rather than return to the hands of the British," the lieutenant said. He maintains that as Germany is not at war with Italy the Italian authorities cannot surrender him to the British.

The Federal Council has authorized the German Imperial Chancellor to make regulations for the sale of soap, soap powder and other saonaceous compounds. According to the Berlin Tageblatt, it is the intention to limit the supply of soap to 100 grams per capita monthly and of other substances of this class to 500 grams monthly, to be sold only upon presentation of a bread card. The Federal Council also has authorized the Chancellor to take measures to assure a supply of print paper and to regulate its consumption.

Three hours after President Wilson had read his ultimatum to Germany before Congress yesterday a detachment of marines from Philadelphia navy yard for Tuckerton, N.J., and Sayville, Long Island, where are located the powerful transatlantic wireless stations. The detachment of 26 marines from the local yard will be joined by a much larger detail from the Brooklyn navy yard, it was stated. The marines have been ordered to the point which would be the first to be attacked by the enemies of the United States in the event of an open break with Germany. It is understood that in the event of such a break the wireless stations will be immediately seized and operated by the War Department.

It is learned that the United States is not acting in concert or simultaneously with other neutral powers in dealing with the submarine issue. At the same time, it was stated, some neutral governments might be passively sympathetic toward the action taken by this country. Sweden was desirous of joint action in the interest of neutral rights in general, but this government decided to act alone in making complaints and demands. It is regarded as unlikely that any neutral would act with the United States in the latest developments of the submarine controversy. Aside from the dissimilar interests of the United States and those of Scandinavia and Holland, it was said, the United States in taking so grave a step is 4,000 miles away from the country at which it is directed, while the other countries most concerned are facing, as it were, the nation concerned.

Another revolution in Haiti is imminent. The crisis has been developed by the action of President Rartiguenave in dissolving the senate and creating a council of the government to draft a new constitution in conformity with the latest treaty between the United States and Haiti. Strong opposition has developed, the president refusing to compromise.

After moving to increase the regular army to 250,000 the Senate passed the army reorganization bill on Wednesday night. The measure passed is the Hay bill in title, but the Chamberlain bill in substance, after being amended in many important particulars. The bill as is passed, in addition to providing for a regular army of 250,000 carries the volunteer army provision authorizing more than 250,000 more, and authorizes appropriation for increasing the efficiency of the militia of the States, which will give a prospective military strength of nearly 650,000 men in addition to the student reserves provided for in the Hardwick amendment.

Secretary of State Lansing has ordered that Wolf von Igel, secretary of Franz von Papen, former military attache to the German Embassy, be immediately released from custody if the charge on which he has been arrested in connection with the plot to blow up the Welland Canal concerns acts committed after he became attached to the German Embassy in Washington. Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, took the matter up with Counsellor Polk, of the State Department, pleading that von Igel, a member of the embassy staff, was immune from arrest in the United States.

WAR NOT NEAR AN END.

Poland Situation Not Satisfactory to Leading German Thinkers.

Paris, April 19.—Maximilian Harden the eminent German editor and lecturer, is quoted here as having made recently the following statement:

In his recent speech Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg did not show that he expected Verdun to be taken before Easter. I do not believe that the capture of the fortress, if we take it, would be very important, If it were to fall next month the French people would already have had time to accept its loss philosophically and the commander-in-chief would be able to fortify the positions between Verdun and Paris.

"The Chancellor is to be praised for stating that Belgium will be evacuated in exchange for adequate guarantees because, if in this war with our enemies—we are not expecting the end to come before the end of the third autumn —luck should turn against us for some days nobody could pretend that it was fear that made us evacuate Belgium after such a declaration by the only responsible man in the empire.

"The Chancellor was also right in not stating clearly his demands on England and France. He could not without exposing himself to ferocious mockery, say that Germany would demand money and territory from the English who have not yet been directly hit anywhere by the war, or from the French, who are far from being vanquished.

"The Chancellor's statement about Poland is unsatisfactory. An independent Poland, with the Grand Duchy of Warsaw under the scepter of the Hohenzollerns, would be more dangerous for the German confederation than Serbia ever was for the possessors of Bosina and Croatia. How would the other German States feel if, alone among the leaders in this war, the Prussian royal house were to increase its territories? Whoever tears Poland, Russia will wound her deeply, but he will soon realize that he has really strengthened her and he will have another Alsace-Lorraine, an irredentist Russia, another cause for war in Northern Europe.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Mrs. Mary M. Minetree, formerly Miss Prcie, daughter of Mrs. Junius Price, of Petersburg, who was married in Washington nine days ago to James Allen Minetree, also of Petersburg, died yesterday morning in Richmond while on her honeymoon.

Rev. George W. McDaniel, D.D. pastor of the First Baptist Church, Richmond yesterday morning told a reporter that despite urgent appeals from both his own church members and hundreds of other people in the city and State, he had definitely determined to let his resignation from the pastorate of the church stand.

William Herny Talbot, 11 years old, only son of Policeman James Talbot of Norfolk was killed Tuesday night when he fell from a pole on the corner of Fourth and Madison streets. He was in company with other boys, and had climbed the pole which supported an electric light. The Talbot boy mounted about 20 feet up the pole, to a cross arm, supporting an electric light. He suddenly emitted a yell, as if he had received an electric shock, and plunged backward to the sidewalk striking on his head.

Sheriff Webb Sydnor and County Officer Shumaker last night arrested W. B. Palmer, who lives on the Osbourne Turnpike ,about four miles out of Richmond, as a result of a fire which completely destroyed his residence. The fire is said by Palmer to have started when he turned over a lamp accidentally, but the farmer is alleged to have threatened his wife and children several times, and they fled from the house early last night.

G. M. Money, was elected State president of the Fraternal Order of Americans, which concluded its sessions yesterday in Norfolk, after selecting Lynchburg as its next place of meeting. Other officers chosen were: W. H. Murphy, State vice-president; James R. Mansfield, secretary; ohn H. Trimyer, treasurer; C. J. Bemusdorfer, marshal; Fred W. Ebhardt, warden; H. E. Follin, inner guard; John O. Meyer, outer guard; George T. Wrenn, chaplain; Wythe White, John Cox, and H. G. Cauls, members of the finance committee.

Brushing aside the accusation of social card playing, the Abingdon Presbytery voted unanimously yesterday against accepting the resignation of Adolphus Kistler, D.D. as pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, of Bristol. When a fight was waged on the minister on the charge of social card playing, he announced a change of view, expressing the belief that it was not proper for a minister to play cards, but at the same time tendered his resignation. Following yesterdays action he will continue to serve the Bristol church.

MARTIAL LAW IN STRIKE

Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y., April 20—Martial law was declared in effect within the limits of Hastings village, and state troops were called upon for duty yesterday after rioting had assumed serious proportions among strikers of the National Conduit and Cable Company. A mob attacked the company's plant with bullets and stones.

The trustees of the village voted to place the situation in the hands of Sheriff Uhlrich Weisendanger, who at once summoned the national guardsmen at White Plains, Mount Vernon and Flushing.

Sheriff Weisendanger suspended the sale of intoxicants and closed all saloons, and ordered on duty the deputies withdrawn Tuesday.

The troops were called out under a law recently passed, authorizing a sheriff to take such action in an emergency without first conferring with the governor.

After stoning the shops the strikers and their sympathizers jostled train commuters in the streets and then drew revolvers and fired into the air and at the plant. No one was injured during this attack.

President J. P. Goodwin, of the village explained that the sheriff had been called upon because the company, which manufactures munitions of war, had demanded protection for its $2,000,000 plant and there are only six village officers.
